To whom it may concern,

STORAGE OF CANDIDATE CV's

In light of changes to Data Protection rules and the introduction of EU GDPR, Precision Chains Limited will permanently destroy any CV after twelve working weeks from the point of submission to the company.

Any such documentation submitted in relation to an advertised position will also be destroyed 12 working weeks after the vacancy has been closed.

For individuals wishing to enquire about employment, we engage locally with a number of recruitment agencies, with some positions posted on our website under the following link,

<http://www.precision-chains.com/join-the-team/>

Recruitment agencies are asked to not send in information about prospective employees unless explicitly requested.

Kind Regards,

N Landon
